HOUSE BILL NO. 8363

Introduced by Hon. Ferdinand R. Marcos II

AN ACT
RENAMING THE MARIANO MARCOS STATE UNIVERSITY IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF BATAC, PROVINCE OF ILOCOS NORTE
AS THE FERDINAND E. MARCOS STATE UNIVERSITY

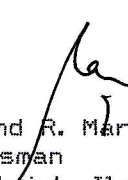

The late President honored his father by naming the premier university in the North Mariano Marcos State University (MMSU). In the same way, the people of Ilocos Norte were honored in possessing such established and named university.

Almost three years after the death of the former President, the same people of Ilocos Norte, particularly those from Batac, as well as the members of the Board of Regents of the MMSU, are strongly clamoring for the renaming of the said University to Ferdinand E. Marcos State University. Joining the clamor is the Provincial Board of the Province of Ilocos Norte which passed a resolution to the same effect.

Such renaming would honor the late President --a true son of the North, and in the same way honor the people of Ilocos Norte from whose ranks he rose towards greatness.

Moreover, this change of name is imperative in order to prevent confusion of the Mariano Marcos State University in Batac, Ilocos Norte with Don Mariano Marcos State University in San Fernando, La Union.

Approval of this bill is requested.
